

GROW Nebraska wants YOUR blog. GROW is giving members the opportunity to increase brand awareness through a blog. We will post one of your blogs on our GROW blog site. We have given some questions below to invoke your blogging genius. You can use the following form as a Q and A or you can send in a blog either from your own blog or one that has been written for GROW. If you have any questions, please email us at info@grownebraska.org.

Name of Business

Location

Business hours (if applicable)

Business description (what kind of goods and services do you provide)?

How did you get your business started?

What is your favorite part about owning your own business in Nebraska?

What Social Networking Sites (Facebook, MySpace, Twitter, Blog, etc), if any, are you using? Why are you using them? And what results have you seen from their use, if any?

What has been the most important/influential decision you have made for your business?

What is your favorite/interesting story about your business?

What other comments would you like to include in your blog (we are opening this up for you to add anything to make this blog your own)?
